

The Private Equity Analyst Program

Applications Open 09/15/2023 and are on a rolling-basis

The Baruch College Private Equity Club (PEC) takes great pride in presenting the highly prestigious Private Equity Analyst Program. Recognized as the pinnacle of buy-side Mergers and Acquisitions (M&A) education at Baruch College, this program offers a rare opportunity to delve deep into the intricacies of Private Equity, equipping individuals with the unparalleled skills and experience needed to pursue opportunities within the realm of Investment Banking and Private Equity.

1. Introduction to Private Equity & Search Fund Principals : Kickstart your learning with an illuminating overview of Private Equity and the intriguing concept of Search Funds. Understand their structures, functions, and strategic significance. Gain a deep understanding of buy-side M&A, equipping you with the skills and experience needed to pursue real world opportunities in finance.
2. Competition with Real-world Applications: Apply your knowledge in a competitive setting for the M&A competition, where you'll gain investment analysis, market research, and financial modeling skills. Learn how to source M&A deals, effectively write an IOI & LOI, and evaluate Investment Teasers, Investment Criteria & Confidential Information Memorandums (CIMs). Learn about the M&A auction process and much more. This hands-on approach prepares you for real-world challenges.
3. Unveiling Valuations: Gain an in-depth understanding of valuation techniques (DCF, LBOs) and learn how to navigate the world of financing with debt and equity. Explore capital structures like 70/30 and 60/40, and acquaint yourself with mezzanine debt, senior debt, and treasury bills.
4. Financial Modeling Develop essential skills in PowerPoint and Excel, while mastering the art of linking the three financial statements and building intricate financial models for real-world private equity M&A deals..

 Program Details:

 Location: [Zoom and In-Person]

 The Analyst Program offers a gateway to the complex universe of Private Equity. Whether you're an aspiring finance professional, a strategic thinker, or simply curious about Investment banking and Private Equity, this program promises a transformative experience.